Biographical / Historical Sketch

Dr. Claycomb is the 9th president of State Technical College of Missouri. At the time of his retirement in 2016, he was the longest serving president of the college, having held the position from 1993-2016.

Scope and Content

The collection consists of items placed in the archives by State Technical College (STC) employees following Dr. Claycomb's retirement party on May 21, 2016. The collection consists of a framed honorary Associates degree diploma bestowed on Dr. Claycomb during his last commencement ceremony on May 7, 2016, a second unframed copy of the diploma, a Shutterfly scrapbook commemorating Dr. Claycomb's last year on campus, a video capturing the legacy of Dr. Claycomb which was played during his retirement party, and a Senate Proclamation acknowledging Dr. Claycomb's tenure and retirement from STC..

Series 1: Diploma

The series contains one framed honorary Associates degree and one unframed copy of the diploma.

Series 2: Books

This series consists of one copy of the Shutterfly scrapbook that was presented to Dr. Claycomb at his retirement party. The original copy was set out at the party and contained 10 pages at the end of the book for people to leave messages. That copy was given to Dr. Claycomb at the party. The copy in the archives differs from the original only in that it does not contain the 10 message pages.

Series 3: Videos

This series contains a video that captured the legacy that Dr. Claycomb leaves behind after his 23 year tenure at State Technical College of Missouri. It is a 10 minute video with pictures and personal interviews with his staff.

Series 4: Documents

This series contains a proclamation from the Missouri State Senate about Dr. Claycomb's tenure and retirement from State Technical College of Missouri.
